Free function theory. We will give a short introduction to the free function theory which studies functions in d (free) non-commuting variables on d-tuples of matrices of all sizes that respect simultaneous intertwining. We present an algebraic approach to consider such functions and show how it can serve as a way to extend a part of the theory to free maps with involution.

This is a joint work with Igor Klep.