

Katsuya Eda, Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan

Cut Points for Groups

I introduce a new notion “Cut point” for groups. This notion corresponds to cut points in certain wild continua through their fundamental groups and is in the scope of the Conner-Eda construction of spaces from groups. I also mention about a one point union of mild wild spaces.